Hills Dales and Passes 8th and 9th June 2019

SUPPLEMENTARY REGULATIONS

The Hills, Dales and Passes is a 2 day tour which will, for the first time for CCHMSC, be wholly in England (apart from the start). We will visit well renowned English scenic areas such as Teesdale, the Yorkshire Dales and the Lake District. The start will be at the Gretna Gateway Outlet Village, Dumfries and Galloway. The first day's route will take us south and east over the North Pennines into Teesdale and beyond into the Yorkshire Dales National Park on a good mixture of flowing fast roads and some narrower twisty sections. From there we will head north east into the Lake District and our overnight destination of Cockermouth, Cumbria. On day 2 we explore all the winding high passes of the Lake District ending up in the afternoon at the Rheged Discovery Centre at Penrith. Lunch halt locations on both days will be of your choosing, there being many interesting pubs, hotels and cafés en route. Tea and coffee will be available to buy at the start location in Gretna and a meal is included at the finish venue in Penrith. The Tour will be approximately 290 miles total.
